South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Saturday, October 5, to Saturday, October 12. 1734.

LONDON, June 29.

LAST Tueſday his Excellency the Baron Van Welderen, formerly Ambaſſador at this Court from their High-Mightineſſes the States-General, arrived here from Holland: 'Tis ſaid he is charged with a private Commiſſion to this Court from their High Mightineſſes.

This Morning his Majeſty reviewed the four Troops of Horſe Guards and the two Troops of Horſe Grenadiers, in Hyde-Park, when her Majeſty, his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, the Duke, and all the Royal Family were preſent; the Guards made a very fine Appearance, and performed their Exercise with great Exactneſs; at which his Majeſty was pleas'd to expreſs his entire Satisfaction: And about One o'Clock his Majeſty and the Royal Family left the Field, and returned to Kenſington to Dinner.

The Prince Royal of Pruſſia is accompany'd to the Imperial Army by the Princes his three Brothers, and by the Margrave Frederick of Brandenburg.

Yeſterday was held a Quarterly General Court of the Charitable Corporation at their Houſe in Spring Garden, at which was a very great Appearance of the principal Proprietors; and the Chairman having acquainted the Court that a Bill in Chancery was, in Purſuance of a Reſolution of a late General Court, and by Advice of eminent Council, filed againſt the late Directors, under whoſe Management above Four hundred thouſand Pounds was loſt and embezzled, and for any Part of which the Corporation have had no Satisfaction, and many Families have thereby ſuffered extremely, without the leaſt Redreſs; it was moved, that the Proceedings of the preſent Court of Directors, in filing ſuch Bill, ſhould be approved of, and the ſame was carried in the Affirmative, by more than Five to One: But ſome of the Proprietors, well known to be in the Intereſt of the late Directors, demanded a Ballot, in Hopes to ſcreen them for anſwering for ſo unparallel'd & notorious a Breach of Truſt; which Ballot, we hear, is to be ſoon taken, and that the Proprietors intend to be upon their Guard and give their Attendance.

Thurſday his Grace the Duke of Buckingham, who lately arrived from the French Army on the Rhine, waited on their Majeſties at Kenſington for the firſt Time, and was graciouſly received; after which a grand Entertainment was given by his Grace at his Mother's Houſe in St. James's Park to ſeveral Perſons of Diſtinction: His Grace appeared in deep Mourning on Account of the Death of his Uncle the Duke of Berwick.

Letters from the Rhine take Notice, that when Prince Eugene had News brought him of the Duke of Berwick's Death, his Highneſs ſhew'd a generous Concern, and ſaid, The Marſhal died Glorioufly; I hope not to finiſh Life with leſs Honour.

'Tis remark'd of his Highneſs Prince Eugene with his Grace the late Duke of Berwick, that being born in the laſt Century

The Prince in the Year	63,	is now aged 71 Years.
The Duke in the Year	71,	is aged 63 Years.
	134.		134

And further, that the ſaid Years when they were born, or their preſent Ages added together, making - - 134
And the Century in which they were born being 1600

The Total happens to make the preſent Year, 1734.

Extract of a Letter from Gibraltar, dated June 16, N. S.

Captain Falkinham, in the Salisbury, attended by —— Men of War, received Mr. Zollicoffre, our Ambaſſador, on board, and as many Officers and Gentlemen of the Garriſon as had a mind to ſee the Manner of his Reception; there went over about 30 of us, which with the Officers of the Men of War, made up about 50 more, that attended his Excellency aſhore. The Baſhaw had his Tent fixed by the Sea-ſide, and was attended by about 3000 People, with all Sorts of Muſick. Two Alcaides received us at landing, and conducted us to the Baſhaw's Tent, a few Paces from the Water-ſide, and he received the Ambaſſador at the Door: A ſhort Ceremony paſſed, and then we went to a Houſe of his a Mile from the Sea, where he gave a ſplendid Dinner, in their Way, ſufficient for 300 People; and in the Evening Houſes were prepared for us all. We went for Tetuan together with Muſick, Cavalcading, and Tournaments: He went himſelf, and gave us a Day of Wild Boar Hunting, when 26 Boars were killed in ſeven Hours time, and gave us a plentiful Dinner in the Field, and returned with Cavalcading all the Way. In ſhort, he uſed us with the greateſt Civility imaginable.

The Ambaſſador remains there 'till he gets an Anſwer from the Emperor, who is ſeveral Days Journey to the South of Mequinez, ſubduing ſome Rebels there. We don't learn yet how he takes the Burning of his two Ships at Magadore; by our lateſt Accounts they had one Cruizer at Sallee ready for Sea, and two more were building which 'tis ſaid they have no Maſts for.

Private Letters from Gibraltar intimate, that they had News that the King of Morrocco with 30,000 Men had been entirely defeated by the rebellious Arabs, and himſelf killed in the Fight, which had put a Stop to the Engliſh Miniſter going thence to Mequinez, to redeem the Britiſh Slaves.

'Tis given out by ſome Perſons of Note, that a late Repreſentation made to a certain Court has had ſuch an Effect, as gives good Ground to hope that a Congreſs will ſoon be ſettled for a general Pacification.

On Tueſday laſt a melancholy Accident happen'd at Wooley Powder-Mills near Bath, where a Carpenter being at work, he chanc'd to ſtrike Fire with ſome of his Tools, and blew up the Mill, by which he and two other Perſons that belong'd to it, were kill'd.

All is as quiet and peaceable here as if there was no ſuch thing as a War in Europe, and there is not the leaſt Talk now of our having any Concern in it, that depending, as is generally ſuggeſted, on the Sentiments of the new Parliament.

They write from the Upper Rhine, That the Imperial General Petraſch has again defeated a ſmall Party of the French; it conſiſted of 300 Men, of which he killed 200, and took 72 Priſoners, amongſt whom were a Lieutenant Colonel, and 2 Captains. The French continue the Siege of of Philipsburg with ſurprizing Vigour, conſidering the Fire made upon them by the Place, and the Inconveniences they ſuffer from the Rhine, which has riſen ſeveral Feet higher than ever was known. The taking of the Horn-work by the Beſiegers is confirmed, but their Loſs in the Action was great.

From Cologn, That the French have blown up the Caſtle of Kern in the Hundſruch, and are demoliſhing Traerbach.

Six Rogues, Arm'd with Piſtols, rowed down the River laſt Night, boarded ſeveral Ships, and robbed them of a conſiderable Value, and got off with the Booty.

'Tis now much talked, and even aſſured, that a general Pacification is on foot, promoted by the chief Neutral Powers, for putting a Stop to the further Effuſion of Blood; and that a Congreſs for that Purpoſe is like to take Place; and the late Rife of the Stocks is aſſigned as a Reaſon for it.

July 14. There are Letters in Town from the Rhine which confirm the great Slaughter of the French Troops by the late Stratagem of the Governor of Philipsburg: That Officer, it ſeems, elevated his Cannon in ſuch a manner that they ſhot beyond the Trenches, which the French ſoon perceiving, ran up their Advances to the very Fortification of the Place, and not finding themſelves interrupted, were preparing for a general Aſſault, when on a ſudden the beſieg'd open'd their Sluces, and pour'd in ſuch a Torrent of Water that they were ſurrounded in an Inſtant beyond a Poſſibility of retreating, and began to ſwim; but the Garriſon ply'd them ſo thick with Volleys of Patridge-ſhot, and by a general Diſcharge of the Muſquetry upon them, that very few, if any, of the Party eſcap'd.

Private Letters from Berlin mention, that his Pruſſian Majeſty is very much troubled with a Lethargy, it has ſeiz'd him ſeveral times at Table, and that it was greatly fear'd leſt the ſame ſhould degenerate in an Apoplectick Fit.

'Tis reported likewiſe, that the Maritime Powers have agreed to take upon them a Mediation of the preſent Diſputes in Europe; And ſome Letters from Paris aſſure that the ſame being made known to the French King, his Majeſty declar'd that he would willingly lend an Ear to any Propoſal he might receive with Honour, in order to put a Stop to the Effuſion of Chriſtian Blood.

Boſton Sept. 2. By Capt Edward Ellis who arived here on Saturday laſt about 8 Weeks from Briſtol and Cork we learn, That Prince Eugene with an Army of 80,000, Men were encamped about a quarter of a League off the French Army before Philipsburg, which conſiſted of 100,000 and that 'twas expected ſoon to have a bloody Battle, the French being annoyed by the Germans both from the Town and from the Camp. That the King and Pr. Royal of Pruſſia and Prince of Orange were in the German Camp, and that the two Princes had taken Commiſſions under the General. Alſo, that the Princeſs of Orange is with Child, and is ſafely arrived in England.

New-York, Sept. 9.

A written Letter of the 17th of June, and the Whitehall Evening Poſt of the ſame Day, ſay, that the Magiſtrates of Dantzick have ranſomed the Town for four Millions of Rix Dollars; are to ask Pardon for the Trouble they had put the Czarina to, and to ſubmit to King Auguſtus, beg his Pardon, and Acknowledge him for their King, &c.

On the firſt Inſt. Capt. Wilſon met with a Wreck at Sea, about 70 Leagues off, with 4 Men upon it, two White and two Black, which happened to be Capt. Edward Todd, one of his Sailors and two Negroes, belonging to Bermuda, and were bound from Philadelphia to Bermuda in a Sloop laden with Proviſions, Staves, &c. that on the 27th of Auguſt in a Storm, a Sea ſtove in the Veſſel's Side, carry'd away the Round Houſe, Binnacle, &c. Capt. Todd's Brother who was Mate, and two Sailors, who were drowned, and immediately filled her, ſo that ſhe lay under Water near two Foot; the four Men above-mentioned ſubſiſted upon ſome Apples and ſome Biſket that floated out of the Cabin, till Capt. Wilſon took them in and brought them hither.

CHARLESTOWN, Octob. 12.

Yeſterday being His Majeſty's Coronation-Day, in abſence of His Excellency the Governor, (who, we hear, begins to recover of his Sickneſs) the Honourable the Chief Juſtice, and Mr. Secretary Hammerton mett at the Council-Chamber, about 12 o'Clock in the Forenoon, with ſeveral of His Majeſty's Officers, and other Gentlemen of Diſtinction in this Province; from whence they proceeded to the Fort, drank the King's Health, the Queen's, the Prince of Wales's, the Prince and Princeſs of Orange's, and all the Royal Family, under the Diſcharge of the Cannon from the Fort, and in the Evening Mr. Secretary entertain'd the Officers of the Province at Mr. Pinckney's.

The Honourable Mr. Secretary Hammerton as Receiver General has this Week iſſued ſeveral Executions to diſtreſs ſome Gentlemen in Town, who are in Arrears of Quit-Rent to the Crown, and we hear, he deſigns to follow the ſame Method with reſpect to every one throughout the Province, who is ſo in arrear.

We hear that ſome Days ago a Sloop from Cape Fear, loaden with Turpentine, and bound for Botton, was caſt away on the Long Bay in North-Carolina, but all the Men were ſaved.

Yeſterday came in a Sloop from Barbadoes, and Capt. Finch from Mountſerrat, and 3 or 4 more Veſſels are off the Barr.

The firſt new Rice was brought in yeſterday morning, and ſold at 3 l. per Hund.

On Sunday laſt died Mr. John Franklin, a Gentleman of a very good Behaviour, which made him eſteem'd and beloved by every body, and as he died Batchelor, we hear he is very much regretted by a young Lady with whom he was going to be married, if Death had not taken him away.

There will be a certain Number of Bottles with Clairet at Strawberry Fair, to be raffled for at Mr. Gignilliat's, at 6 l. per Dozen.

MR. Dry continuing fixed in his reſolution of removing off the Province with his Family, and part of his Intereſt as ſoon as he can conveniently, advertiſes for Sale Two or Three Hundred Acres of his Tract of Land little more than a Mile above the Quarter Houſe, on the Eaſtern ſide of, and fronting the broad Path, two thirds of which he will engage to be good planting Land, and the remainder capable of being made good Paſture; and will take Negroes, Liquors, or dry Goods in Payment for it.

Whereas Wm. Yeomans has in the Gazette Aug. the 17th advertized, that Tho. Holmes his Apprentice (as he calls him) had authorized and impowred me to receive ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as are contracted by him, much to his the ſaid Yeomans's Detriment: And I then believing that the ſaid Yeomans might be mis-informed or impoſed upon, immediately anſwered the ſaid Advertiſement, by poſting up at the uſual places in Charleſtown, but as the ſaid Advertiſement is ſtill continued, am under an abſolute Neceſſity of doing myſelf juſtice in the ſame Gazette. Theſe are therefore to certifie, that the ſaid Aſſertion of the ſaid Yeomans is falſe, groundleſs and malicious, For I never had any order or orders, power or powers whatſoever, directly or indirectly from the ſaid Holmes to receive any Sum or Sums of Money of any perſon or perſons whatſoever, except the Sum of Ten Pounds Currency, about 4 or 5 Months ago, paid to me by Mr. Cook of Dorcheſter for the Uſe of the ſaid Holmes and for which I have his Receipt. The ſaid Yeomans likewiſe aſſerts, that the ſaid Holmes traffick'd without his Aſſent, whereas it is well known and can be fully proved that the ſaid Holmes trad'd by his Knowledge and Conſent, and even contracted ſettled Accounts, paid and received diverſe large Sums of Money in his own Name in the way of Trade, before I arrived in this Province, which is not yet one Year.

Robert Shaw.

THE Reader of the above Advertiſement will pleaſe to obſerve, that the Advertiſer, by acknowledging the Receipt of Ten Pounds from Mr. Cook, for the uſe of my Apprentice and Ward Thomas Holmes, hath fairly proved, that Tho. Holmes had impowered him to receive Money for him; which being a Certificate diametrically oppoſite to his other Certificate, viz. That my Aſſertion in the Gaz. of Aug. 17 was falſe, groundleſs and malicious, the Reader will readily determine, what Credit can be given in any particular, to a perſon who is capable of aſſerting ſuch groſs Contradictions

The Advertizer is, or pretends to be a Lawyer, and without Doubt knew that the Infant's Receipt was not a ſufficient Diſcharge for the Ten Pounds, which he acknowledges to have received, but hath not ſaid, he paid to the ſaid Infant; wherefore after my Acknowledgment for his Information in this caſe, I ſhall take the Liberty of informing him as frankly, that I ſhall take a proper Opportunity of demanding that Money from him in the moſt effectual manner. Whether my Apprentice traffick'd with or without my Aſſent, the Reader will without doubt think that was a matter very foreign to the Advertiſer's character, all his being ſo officious in an Affair that concern'd him ſo little, had induc'd all fair and reaſonable People to conclude him a very forward meddling perſon. Wm. Yemans.

Wm. Yeomans in the Gazette Septemb. 28. ſeems to glory in a Victory over me by my Confeſſion of having received 10 l. from Mr. Cooke for the uſe of Tho: Holmes, and alſo charges me with groſs contradictions. The impartial Reader may ſee in my foregoing Advertiſement I own'd the Receipt of the ſaid 10 l. Whether I paid or not paid the ſame to the ſaid Holmes, it is quite out of the caſe And if Wm. Yeomans can compel me to pay him the ſaid 10 l. then (by a parity of reaſon) all perſons who have paid any ſum or ſums of money to the ſaid Holmes are obliged to pay the ſame over again to the ſaid Yeomans, notwithſtanding the ſaid Holmes's Receipts, altho' he truſtick'd by his the ſaid Yeomans's aſſent. 'Tis ſtrange the ſaid Yeomans (who is or pretends to be a knowing Merchant or Factor) ſhould ſtop my letters directed for Oliver Marton of Warwick Court Eſq; and Tho: Ruſſell of Jooke Courts Chancery Lane Eſq, London, in anſwer to ſome Letters of great moment from them ſent to me by Capt. Compton and others lately.

Before the Honourable ROBERT WRIGHT Eſq; Chief Juſtice of the Province of South Carolina.

PErſonally appeared WILLIAM YEOMANS of Charles-Town in the Province aforeſaid Merchant, and made Oath that he never ſtop'd or intercepted, nor has he cauſed or procured to be ſtop'd or Intercepted by any Means whatſoever either directly or indirectly any Letter or Letters wrote by Robert Shaw to Oliver Marton of Warwick Court Eſq; or Thomas Ruſſel of Jooke Court Chancery Lane Eſq; in London, nor has he to his knowledge ever ſeen any ſuch Letters or been in any Manner privy to or concern'd in ſo unfair a practice as has been ſuggeſted againſt him by the aforeſaid R. Shaw in an Advertiſement publiſhed in the South Carolina Gazette on Saturday the fifth day of this Inſtant October.
